

The Centennial Society

The Centennial Society and the Centennial Fund were created more than a decade ago by the Economic Club of New York Board of Trustees to provide the Club financial security during its second century and to ensure continued high-quality programs for its membership. The Fund is directed by the Board and all expenditures from the Fund, whether from income and/or principal, must be authorized by the Board. Today, there are more than 300 members in the Centennial Society. All Gifts to the Fund are tax-deductible and have enabled the Club to further its important mission of providing diverse and timely programs with prominent thought leaders who share ideas across virtually every aspect of the national and global economy.

To join the Centennial Society, we are pleased to share that there are three levels of giving that a Club member may select to support the Centennial Fund. As always, company matches are welcome. All Centennial Society members are offered an opportunity to join our off-the-record Salon Series and each level, and the associated member benefits are outlined below:
